

§ 62.204 Authority to request service.

Any person requesting service may be required to prove his/her financial interest in the product or service at the discretion of the Deputy Administrator.

§ 62.205 Conflict of interest.

No USDA official shall review any program documentation or determine conformance of any documented process or system in which the USDA official has financial holdings.

§ 62.206 Access to program documents and activities.

(a) The applicant shall make its products and program documentation available and easily accessible for assessment, with respect to the requested service. Auditors and other USDA officials responsible for maintaining uniformity and accuracy of service under the regulations shall have access to all parts of facilities covered by approved applications for service under the regulations, during normal business hours or during periods of production, for the purpose of evaluating products or processes. This includes products in facilities which have been or are to be examined for program conformance or which bear any official marks of conformance. This further includes any facilities or operation that is part of an approved program.

(b) Documentation and records relating to an applicant's program must be retained for at least one calendar year following the calendar year during which the record was created.

§ 62.207 Official assessment.

Official assessment of an applicant's program shall include:

(a) Documentation assessment. Auditors and other USDA officials shall review the applicant's program documentation and issue finding of the review to the applicant.

(b) Program assessment. Auditors and USDA officials shall conduct an onsite assessment of the applicant's program to ensure provisions of the applicant's program documentation have been implemented and conform to LS Program QSVF procedures.

(c) Program Determination. Applicant's determined to meet or not meet LS

Program QSVF procedures or the applicant's program requirements shall be notified of their program's approval or disapproval.

(d) Corrective and/or preventative actions. Applicants may be required to implement corrective and/or preventative actions upon completion of assessment. After implementation of corrective and/or preventative actions, the applicant may request another assessment.

§ 62.208 Publication of QSVF assessment status.

Approved programs shall be posted for public reference on the ARC Branch Web site: <http://www.ams.usda.gov/lsg/arc/audit.htm>. Such postings shall include:

(a) Program name and contact information,

(b) Products or services covered under the scope of approval,

(c) Effective dates of approval, and

(d) Control numbers of official assessments, as appropriate, and

(e) Any other information deemed necessary by the Branch Chief.

§ 62.209 Reassessment.

Approved programs are subject to periodic reassessments to ensure ongoing conformance with the LS Program QSVF procedures covered under the scope of approval. The frequency of reassessments shall be based on the LS Program QSVF procedures, or as determined by the Deputy Administrator.

§ 62.210 Denial, suspension, or cancellation of service.

(a) QSVF services may be denied if an applicant fails to meet its program requirements, or conform to LS Program QSVF procedures, such as:

(1) Adequately address any program requirement resulting in a major non-conformance or an accumulation of minor non-conformances that result in the assignment of a major non-conformance for the program.

(2) Demonstrate capability to meet any program requirement resulting in a major non-conformance.

(3) Present truthful and accurate information to any auditor or other USDA official; or
